CHICAGO, September 27.—The White Sox defeated Washington yesterday by the score of 4 to 2. The game was a close one, the Sox having made one run in the third inning and gathered a bunch of three in sixth, while the Senators were killing their pretzel with goose eggs.

In the eighth inning, however, the visitors turned up, and in a batting rally managed to get two runners over the home plate, and for a moment frightened the fans, who began to think these tallenders, who have always been home-rons in the Chicagoans were about to turn the trick.

Chicago's few little were bunched, while Owens kept those of the Senators scattered, except in the eighth, when C. Jones swatted a long triple-banger that was good for himself and one more.

Score: Chicago, 4; Washington, 2.
Batteries: Owen and Sullivan; Patton and Warner. Time, 1:35. Umpire, O'Rourke.

CLEVELAND, 10-2; New York, 1-2. The Yankees kept themselves in second place today by holding the Naps to a 2-1 defeat. In the first inning, Cleveland's Griffith did their best to put the Naps out of the running, but both were hard hit. Doyle went in the second game, and by super pitching saved the day. As a result, another double-header will be played to-morrow to determine which shall hold second place in the race.

IN BATTLE ROYALGreatest Harness Horses in America Will Be Seen at Richmond Show.

COMPETITION TO BE RED-HOT

Seventeen Millionaires Among the Exhibitors—Mr. Vanderbilt to Drive Coach.

WHEN the bugle sounds for the first class at the Horse Show on Tuesday night, October 30th, there will begin a battle royal for honors in the harness classes the like of which has never been seen in this country.

Entered in the various events are the very strongest harness stables in America and to the one that wins here will no doubt fall the honors at Madison Square Garden.

At the various open-air shows held during the past spring and a summer, the competition has been warm but the class of the horse world are at Richmond, for here the first electric light show of the season is held and the horses that secure the awards will be picked as winners at New York.

Stables Represented.

Among the stables that will be represented are those of Mr. John G. Deane, of New York; Mrs. Lady of New York; Mr. Alfred G. Vanderbilt, of New York; Mr. C. W. Watson, of Baltimore; Mr. Richard P. McGraw, of Lancaster, Pa.; Mr. George Watson, of New York; Mr. E. T. Stables, of Philadelphia; Mr. A. Randolph Howard, of Fredericksburg; Mr. John Kerr Branch, of Richmond; Mr. Melly Danlop, of Petersburg; Mr. Lehman Straus, of New York; and Mr. Wessell, of Baltimore.

Practically every great harness horse in America will be here with the exception of those belonging to Judge Moore, Miss Guilbert and the Timmons. Mr. Eben Jordan, who played so conspicuous a part in the show, has withdrawn from the ring and his horses have been sold, many of them being entered here by their new owners.

In the championship harness class the competition will be hot, for these will be entered: Lord Baltimore, Ringing Bell, Lady Ophir, Newshay, Rustling Silk, Royal Regent, Rustling Rustling, Miconette, See Me Go, Kaiser-James, Kid, Doves, Fokler, Kitz, Grand, Novena, Revolver, Elegance and a score or more of others.

The four-in-hand classes will be hotly contested by Mrs. Gerkin, Mr. Vanderbilt, Mr. McGraw, Mr. C. W. Watson and Mr. George Watson.

Mr. Vanderbilt will have an opportunity of seeing perfectly appointed road coaches, for Mr. Vanderbilt will run his "Venture" from the Jefferson Hotel to the east side of the city, while Mr. George Watson will drive his road coach from the Richmond Hotel to the Fair Grounds.

Booking offices will be opened at both hotels, and the public will be invited to purchase seats on the coaches.

Mr. E. T. Stables, who has a number of entries, is the best known exhibitor of roadsters in America. For many years he has been a leader in the exhibition, and the judges will find his "type" hard to find fault with. Mr. Stables is a partner of Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan.

Two New Buildings.

So many more entries have come in than was expected that the management has been obliged to give orders for the erection of two more buildings for the forty horse and carriage exhibits, and the capacity of the show will be strained.

Kingdoner Allen, of New York, with his assistant and jumping classes will be in the South nearly every one, rich and poor alike, is a lover of horse. The exhibition is supported extensively by the very rich.

This fact is evidenced by those who have entered here, among which are no less than seventeen millionaires. In this class belong: Mr. Alfred G. Vanderbilt, Mr. C. W. Watson, Mr. John G. Deane, Mr. John K. Branch, Mr. Richard P. McGraw, Captain Joseph E. Willard, Mr. Lady of New York, Mr. E. T. Stables, Mr. A. Randolph Howard, Mr. John Kerr Branch, Mr. Melly Danlop, Mr. Lehman Straus, Mr. Wessell, of Baltimore, Mr. E. T. Stables, Mr. A. Randolph Howard, Mr. John Kerr Branch, Mr. Melly Danlop, Mr. Lehman Straus, Mr. Wessell, of Baltimore.

It is a matter of regret that Mr. and Mrs. Blair Johnson, of Warrenton, Ore., have made no entries for the show. Not a single horse from Warrenton is entered. Neither Jack nor Dick Johnson will be here to drive or ride, but there will be others who will take their places. Mr. Taylor and Mr. Holloway will do some high jumping and Everett Everett, Mr. C. W. Watson's whip, will do a few fancy stunts. Mr. Vanderbilt will drive his own coach.

RANDOLPH HOWARD'S
BLUE RIBBON ENTRYBurlingham and Rockingham, Practically Unbeaten, Will Be Seen Here.

Mr. A. Randolph Howard has added a great pair of show horses to his already well-known stable through the purchase of Burlingham and Rockingham from General A. E. Booth, of Baltimore.

They are a strikingly handsome pair of bays with black points, a perfect conformation and finish, and possessed of phenomenal action.

At Baltimore and Atlantic City, the only times shown, they have repeatedly decorated with the blue ribbon in classes in which the foremost show horses of this country were exhibited.

As a pair at Baltimore, they won the Hutton Challenge Cup, valued at $250. Winning Mr. Watson's Lord Baltimore and My Maryland, and Mr. Hart's Lord Baltimore and Laughing Water. In class 2 for harness pairs they again won the blue over Mr. Watson's Virginia and West Virginia and Miss Gilbert's Archduke and Princess, the latter pair being formerly owned by Mrs. Gerkin.

Single horses Burlingham was placed first in a field of nine high-class entries. At Atlantic City in class 12 for harness pairs, they were again placed over Mr. Watson's Black Beauty and Black Rose, Mr. Schwartz's Spider and Fly, and Mr. Watson's Lord Baltimore and My Maryland. Mr. Howard will exhibit all of his horses at the Richmond and Norfolk shows, and some of them at New York.

RUHLIN RETIRES.

Akron Giant Will Devote Energies to Real Estate.

NEW YORK, September 27.—Gus Ruhl, the Akron Giant, has retired from the prize ring. This is Gus's first retirement, and he says it will be his last. Ruhl, who is now in New York, has devoted his entire time to the management of his many real estate properties and he expects to be worth $50,000 inside of three years.

Ruhl gives as his reason for retiring the fact that he is disgusted with the poor class of prize ring fights. Billy Madden, the man who discovered and developed Ruhl, said yesterday: "I had a long talk with Gus, and the result of that talk is that Ruhl will quit the ring forever. This is not one of those 'fake' retirements made for the purpose of publicity, but the genuine article. I told Gus that he is not a champion possibility, and as he is summing up his career, he has decided to think it better for him to quit now, when he has the good will of the people."

Ruhl owns thirty city lots in Brooklyn, and has a thirty interest in about seventy lots in the Bronx.

WRAY MAY QUIT.

Disagreement Over Defeat of Crimson Crew in England.

DETROIT, Mich., September 27.—James Wray, the well known rowing coach of the Detroit Boat Club and Harvard University, has been notified by the Harvard-Cambridge crew race, and it is reported that he is planning to return to Australia.

Wray has sent his family to Australia, and it is said that he will not even return to the United States. His loss would be a blow both to the local club and the Eastern University.

WILL FIGHT SUNDAY.

Walcott and Rhodes to Meet on Neutral Land.

LEAVENWORTH, KAN., Sept. 27.—All arrangements for the fight next Sunday between Walcott and Rhodes for the welterweight championship have been made. The contest will, it is planned, take place on a strip of neutral land several miles from Leavenworth. The jurisdiction of this land has never been determined. It pays no taxes and a saloon has flourished on it for years unmolested. Governors Hoch and Folk combined to prevent the fight scheduled for last Sunday.

Football Practice.

ASHLAND, Va., September 27.—Mr. Eastman, the Dartmouth coach of the Randolph-Macon football team, put his men through an interesting and tiring ten-minute scrimmage on the gridiron this afternoon. The first team was put on the field, and the first game was played. The team will leave Saturday evening for Raleigh, N. C., where they will play their first game with the Agricultural and Mechanical College.

TRAIN WRECKED.

Rail Removed From Trestle in South Carolina.

COLUMBIA, S. C., September 27.—Southern Railway passenger train No. 20, between Columbia and Charleston, was derailed at Oconee, where the trestle was removed from the track this morning. Fireman Andrew Kemp, colored, was killed, and Engineer J. E. McDaniel was painfully wounded. The bodies of the passengers were injured. The trestle, which had been removed from the track, was found to be in a bad state of repair. A rail had been removed from the trestle, and the engine struck the place where the accident occurred. The engine and three cars left the track and completely turned over at the bottom of a twenty-foot embankment. The day coach, which is of the steel type, was the only car not damaged.
